Petersbourg, October 9.

ON Monday laſt the Ruſſian Officer who carried Count Oſterman's Anſwer to the Grand Vizier's Letter, returned hither; but the Contents of what that Gentleman brought have not yet been made Publick. A Body of Crim Tartars who lately plundered and burnt ſome Ruſſian Villages near Bachmut and Uſum, and carried off about 1500 of the Czarina's Subjects, were met and entirely defeated by a Party of Don Coſſacks, who retook the Ruſſian Priſoners, and ſent them Home. The laſt Accounts this Court have received from their Army, mention, that the Grand Vizier, after having advanced with his Forces beyond the Danube, was returned to Conſtantinople, whereby he has put an End to the preſent Campaign; and the Czarina's Troops being now in Winter Quarters, it is not expected there will be any more Actions heard of from them, at leaſt till the next Spring.

Copenhagen, Oct. 30, N. S. As M. Johnn, the preſent Daniſh Miniſter at the Court of Great Britain, is to be removed ſoon from that Station, his Daniſh Majeſty has been pleaſed to name M. Solenthal to ſucceed him therein, and this Gentleman has accordingly received Orders to repair to England without Loſs of Time. M. de la Noue delivered Yeſterday to the King of Denmark a Letter from the Prince of Conti, notifying the Death of the Princeſs. Count Danneskiold has received lately a freſh Mark of his Daniſh Majeſty's Favour, having been appointed Superintendant of every thing relating to the Sea Service. Orders are likewiſe given, that for the future, all Applications in that Province, inſtead of being made, as uſual, to the Admiralty, ſhall be made to him alone. This Day being appointed as a Jubilee, to commemorate the Expulſion of the Roman Catholick Biſhops, and the Eſtabliſhment of thoſe of the Proteſtant Religion in this Country, the King went in State to the Church of St. Nicholas to aſſiſt at the Feſtival, which was celebrated with Sermons, Orations, and a particular Form of Prayer.

Berlin. Nov. 2, N. S. Reports here are ſtrong, that the Peace between the Perſians and Turks is certainly concluded; and M. Brackel's, the Ruſſian Miniſter's Advices, give room to ſuſpect they are not without Foundation. That Miniſter has let fall, that his Court was ready to do the ſame, if the Turks would only yield up Aſoph; but, according to ſome Letters, that Point is like to meet with great Difficulties at the Ottoman Porte, whoſe Thoughts are the ſame as the Ruſſians with reſpect to the Importance of that Place. General Pretorius, the Daniſh Miniſter, has taken his Audience of Leave of the King of Pruſſia at Wuſterhauſen, and in a few Days he propoſes to wait on the Prince Royal at Reinsberg; after which he will ſet out on his Return home.

Hague, Nov. 9, N. S. The States of the Province of Holland are to aſſemble on Wedneſday next; and before they ſeparate, will diſpoſe of ſeveral Civil and Military Employments that are vacant within the Repartition of their Province: Many Perſons are already come hither to ſollicite thoſe Employments. Lieutenant General Caris, Governour of Maeſtricht, is dead, by which the Government of that Place, and the Command of a Regiment are become vacant. A Ship which could not keep up with the reſt of the Fleet which came lately from the Eaſt Indies, is ſafely arrived at Amſterdam.
